

University Program Information Sessions at Durham Tech

September 27, 2012 Wynn Center Multi-purpose Room

-
- 8:30-9:00 NC Wesleyan College / Raleigh Durham Campus— Sandra Seets-Carmichael, director of Raleigh-Durham ASPIRE (Adult Student Programs: Innovative, Respected, Engaging), will be on hand to discuss program and transfer opportunities for adult students.
-
- 9:00--10:00 UNC-CH—Rebecca Egbert, senior assistant director of admissions and C-STEP program director at UNC-CH, will answer questions about admissions requirements and procedures, including transferability of courses. Amy Burdette, assistant director for undergraduate admissions at UNC School of Nursing, will discuss admissions requirements and procedures in the nursing program. Advisor Sarah Nelson will discuss requirements for STEM majors. Also, Kaitlyn Murphy, student services manager, and Jeff Pomerantz, professor and director of Undergraduate Studies, will present on the Bachelor of Science in Information Science at UNC.
-
- 10:00-11:00 NCSU—Roger Sims, assistant director for Undergraduate Admissions at NCSU, will present information and answer questions about admission to NCSU.
- Campbell University—A representative from Campbell will present information about Campbell's articulation agreement with Durham Tech; study-tracks for seamless transfer into Campbell majors, which include Pharmaceutical Sciences and Clinical Research; as well as financial aid and scholarship opportunities.
-
- 11:00-12:00 UNC-G—Andre Hill, assistant director for Undergraduate Admissions, will discuss opportunities for AAS students (especially students in Business Technologies, Early Childhood Education, and Nursing) to earn a BA or BS degree at UNC-G. Catherine Holderness, representing the International Programs Center, will discuss admissions for international students. Leah Tompkins will discuss online opportunities in Public Health with a concentration in Health Studies.
- CFNC—Sarita Broadway from the College Foundation of North Carolina will discuss the resources and financial aid opportunities available to transfer students through CFNC's website.
-
- 12:00-1:00 NCCU—Tenita Philyaw-Rogers, director of Community Partnerships and Transfer Students at NCCU, will join faculty from various departments to talk about opportunities in Business, Criminal Justice, Education, Hospitality and Tourism, Pharmaceutical Science (including opportunities in the BRITE program), and Social Work. She will also present on admissions requirements and transfer services available at NCCU.
- Duke Medical—Sharon Coward, program coordinator for Duke University's Summer Medical and Dental Education Program (SMDEP), will be on hand to discuss opportunities at Duke for a summer enrichment program for promising students interested in medicine or dentistry.
-
- 1:00-2:00 Meredith College—Meredith recently signed the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement, providing a smooth transfer from Durham Tech to Meredith. Liz Wolfinger, vice president for Academic Planning and Programming, will present on opportunities for adult women at Meredith, as well as unveil the study tracks which guide students in the best course selections for women transferring to Meredith.
- ECU—Amy Frank, director of Program Assessment, Development, and Outreach in the department of Technology Systems, will discuss opportunities for AAS students to earn a BS degree in Industrial Engineering Technology. Kelli Johnston, academic advisor with the College of Business, will discuss business undergraduate programs and opportunities at ECU, and Bonnie Lancaster, assistant director of Student Services in Nursing, will present on opportunities in nursing.
-
- 2:00-3:00 WSSU—Regina Watkins Brim, assistant director of Transfer and Adult Student Admissions, will present on opportunities for adult students at Winston Salem State University.
- Appalachian State University—Jane Rex, director of Transfer Articulation, will talk on opportunities at ASU.